

SOCIETY NEWS AND CHAT OF THE WEEK

(Continued from Fourth Page.)

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., Miss Tessa Isolan, Miss Fannie Isolan, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Isolan, Miss Henrietta Weatherbee, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bird, Mrs. J. Fred Kernochan, Misses Harriman, Miss Ethel Post, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thebaud, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. H. Carroll Brown, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Maddox, Robert Golet, Alphonso de Navarro, Andrew Miller, Blair Painter, and many others.

Weddings

The marriage of Miss Alleen Kerr, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kerr, to Charles McIlvaine Harris, which will take place at the country home of the bride's parents, "Antrim," in Warren, Va., November 7, will be strictly a home affair. The bride will have no attendants, and the bridegroom will have his brother, Montgomery Harris, as his best man. Mr. Harris will take his bride to his own country place at Warren, recently purchased by him, and they will add another charming household to that already delightful neighborhood. Dr. and Mrs. Kerr have not closed their country place, but Mrs. Kerr will return there today, after spending the past week here overseeing their moving into Stoneleigh Court, where they have taken an apartment for the winter.

Miss Josephine Shallenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shallenberger, and the Rev. Paul Smith will be married Wednesday, November 7, at Calvary Baptist Church at noon.

Miss Shallenberger will be attended by her sister, Miss Mary P. Shallenberger, as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Catharine Virginia McIlhenny, Miss M. Elsie Turner, Miss Lola May Evans, and Miss Helen M. Beale.

Victor Johnson, of Philadelphia, will be the best man for Mr. Sperry, and the ushers will be Frederick W. Albert, Artley R. Parson, William K. West, and Dr. Mahlon Ashford.

After the ceremony at the church a small reception for the bridal party, and immediate relatives will take place at the home of the bride's parents in Mintwood place.

Mr. Sperry will take his bride to Bath, Me., where he is pastor of the New Church, and they will be at home there after November 1.

The marriage of Miss Katherine A. Saur to Edward Briscoe took place Wednesday evening, October 17, at the home of the bride's sister, at 112 Massachusetts avenue northwest, at half past seven.

Palms, ferns and cut flowers formed the decorations in the house, and the ceremony was performed in an improvised bower by the Rev. Paul A. Menzel. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present.

The bridegroom was of gray chiffon over tulle, trimmed with Venice lace and panne velvet, and her only ornament was a diamond brooch. The bride's bouquet was a shower of bride roses.

Miss Mary C. Saur, the bride's sister, was her maid of honor, and W. D. Briscoe, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe left Washington for their bridal journey. Upon their return they will make their home at 428 H street northwest after November 1.

Miss Mary Darley Collins, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob W. Collins, 68 Brent street northeast, and John M. Glover will be married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Eckington Presbyterian Church.

Miss Marjorie Ruth Mertz will be the maid of honor, and the bride's other attendants will be Miss Hazel Magie, Miss Bertha Bean, Miss Celestine Hodges and Miss Aurora Hodges.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Rambo to Clement Hill Brooke. The ceremony will take place at Rosemont, the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Rambo, near Silver Springs, Md., on Wednesday, October 24.

Miss Grace Mae Evans and G. Leonard Williams will be married tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. E. Evans, 105 E street southeast. The Rev. Dr. Johns, of the G Street Christ Church, will be the officiating clergyman.

There will be no attendants, and the couple will leave Washington immediately for a Southern wedding trip by water. After their return to Washington they will hold a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Friday evening, October 26, and after November 1 will be at home at 161 Heckman street southeast.

The marriage of Miss Frances Adelaide Smith and Frank Orndorff Parker will take place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Paul's Church. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Harding and only the relatives of the young couple will be present.

Miss Smith will be unattended, but Mr. Parker will have his brother, Walter C. Parker, as his best man. Mrs. Emma Lafayette, aunt of the bride, will give her in marriage.

Mr. Parker will take his bride to live at 710 Nineteenth street after an extensive Southern tour, and they will be at home there after December 1.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Snare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snare, of Palisade avenue, Englewood, N. J., to Lieut. Charles Winder Mason Jr., U. S. A., was an interesting event in army circles last week.

The ceremony was performed in the Episcopal Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. S. M. Hamilton, D. D., pastor of the church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lace robe over chiffon and tulle, and had as her attendants Miss Carla Errant Surburg, of Montclair, N. J., as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were her two sisters, Miss Jennie Snare and Miss Elsie Snare.

Lieut. Ben Gray, of West Point, was the best man for Lieutenant Mason.

After the wedding journey Lieutenant Mason will take his bride to Fort Douglas, Utah, where he is stationed with his regiment.

Miss Agnes Louise Fuller and George Hodges Carr were married at Hyattsville, Wednesday evening, October 17, in Pinckney Memorial Chapel, by the Rev. Charles J. S. Mayo, the rector.

Palms, ferns, and cut flowers formed the decorations and the wedding music was played by Mrs. C. J. S. Mayo, wife of the rector.

The bride, who entered the church with her brother, Edward A. Fuller, wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth and a large picture hat and carried a huge bouquet of violets. There were no bridesmaids, but the ushers, George L. Hardesty, D. H. R. Drury, Frank C. Rolfe, and J. Edwin Wilson preceded the bride to the altar. Mortimer Carr, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr left immediately after the ceremony for Baltimore, where they will spend their honeymoon, and upon their return will make their home in Olive avenue, Hyattsville.

Miss Mary Shinn and Charles Robert Claiborne will be married Monday, October 22, at the home of the bride's parents, 145 Eleventh street northeast. Miss Shinn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Shinn.

U. D. of C. Bazaar

Stonewall Jackson Chapter, No. 29, of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, held its first meeting Friday night at the Ebbitt House and appointed committees to take charge of the bazaar, which is to be held for the benefit of the Confederate monument they plan to erect at Arlington.

The bazaar will be given in the Confederate Veterans Hall, 149 H street northwest, December 4 and 5, from 4:30 to 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Rosalie H. Boccock, chairman of the executive committee called the meeting to order and appointed the different chairmen of the committees.

The committee on entertainment consists of Mrs. Boccock, chairman, Mrs. Samuel Sprigg Belt, Mrs. Drury Ludlow, Mrs. Fred and Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

A hot supper will be served each night. The committee in charge of this part of the entertainment will consist of Mrs. Drury C. Ludlow, chairman; Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Hungerford, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. White, Mrs. Dorsey, Mrs. Salter, Mrs. August tus Jackson, Miss E. Carter, Miss Proctor, Miss Benton, and Miss Pratt.

The committee on popcorn and ice cream consists of Mrs. William Birney, chairman; Mrs. Belt, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. S. Benjamin, Mrs. St. Clair Thompson, Miss Colt, and Mrs. Gustavus Werber.

The bakery committee includes Mrs. B. C. West, as chairman; Mrs. Young, Mrs. Kingsbury, Mrs. Frederick Lee, Miss Brant, and Mrs. Merwin.

Mrs. Pitcher is chairman of the committee on candy, with Mrs. Dorman, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. John H. Lightfoot, and Miss Birdie Washington as assistants.

The committee on flowers consists of Mrs. Albert Akers, chairman; Mrs. Carl Shaffer, and Mrs. O. W. Hillers.

The coffee house will be in charge of Mrs. Newman. Mrs. J. H. Fred was appointed chairman of the fancy table, with Mrs. Turk, Mrs. Bull, and Miss de Sisseur as assistants.

The committee on dolls consists of Mrs. John Ritchey, chairman, and Miss Paxton, Miss Rose Thomas, and Miss Ella Bouldin.

The Japanese tea house will be in charge of Mrs. Baird; the grab bag in charge of Miss Fairfax and Miss Mah-lop, and the art gallery in charge of Miss Bunizer and Mrs. H. M. Marchant.

The Children of the Confederacy, in charge of Mrs. Arthur E. Johnson, will have a flag booth, where Confederate souvenirs will be on sale. The next meeting of the committees will take place at the Ebbitt House, November 20.

The Washingtonians held their ever-popular opening dance in National Rifles Armory on Thursday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, the dance was largely attended, more than 125 couples being present. The program consisted of twenty numbers, and was under the direction of Prof. Fred Helbig, Jr. An interesting feature at intermission was two very pretty songs by little Miss Leona Callan.

The club will meet Monday night at Miss Appleby's 923 Eighth street northwest.

The Thursday Evening Bowling Club held its first meeting of the season Thursday evening, and after most interesting bowling, supper was served at Harvey's. Those in the party were Mrs. Fannie K. Levi, Miss Freda Lindheimer, Miss Ella Behrend, Miss Ella Steiner, Miss Berdie Steiner, Miss Amelia Stern, and Miss Helene D. Engel, and Silas Rosenthal, George Freidlander, Louis Buch, Samuel Schwartz, Edward Rosenthal, Joseph Baum, and Jonas Machells.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil King are spending a few days in New York city. Mr. King will also spend some time at Princeton.

Mrs. Phil May, of Charleston, W. Va., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Behrend.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Peyser will return to their home, 1523 Sixteenth street, after a trip through Canada and vicinity.

Miss Hortense Rosenbaum, of Baltimore, is the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac G. Goldenberg, of Baltimore street.

The many friends of Edgar Kaufman will be pleased to know that he is convalescent enough to be at home from the Georgetown University Hospital.

E. Heidenheimer, his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Held, and their guest, Miss Emma Schwab, have gone to New York for a short visit.

Mrs. B. Rosenthal, Mrs. Harry King and Miss Freda Lindheimer are spending a few days in Baltimore.

Miss Hackstaff's Marriage.

Albert Gallatin's marriage to Miss Margaret Hackstaff will take place on November 22 at Trinity Chapel. Miss May Hackstaff will be her sister's maid of honor, while Golet Gallatin will be the best man of the bridegroom, who is like him, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred, eric Gallatin, and a nephew of Eldridge T. Gerry.

Wedding Follows Ball.

On the day after the Halloween ball most of those who have gone to Tuxedo in order to attend it will be present at the wedding there of Miss Sybil Kane to A. Stewart Walker, in St. Mary's Church. Miss Edith and Miss Dorothy Kane will be the only attendants of their sister, and, as everybody knows one another at the Park, where the colony during the season forms to all intents and purposes one big family, it will be possible for once to dispense with ushers, a peculiarly American, and by no means picturesque, feature of weddings.

Other Weddings of Week.

Other weddings of the week are those of Miss Katherine Lyman to John Nelson Steele, Jr., at the Church of the Ascension on Tuesday; that of James D. Remsen to Miss Melinda Plimpton, daughter of the late Arthur W. Plimpton, on Saturday at the Church of the Incarnation, and that of Henry H. Hollister, Jr., to Miss Hope Shepley, at St. Stephen's Church in Providence, R. I., where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shepley, make their home.

Henry Hollister, who is a son of Mrs. H. H. Hollister, of West Forty-ninth street, and who has become a member of the Knickerbocker and Union clubs since he graduated from Yale in 1889, will have his brother, Bush, as his best man, and J. Searle Barclay, Jr., Johnston Livingston, Jr., Murray W. Dodge, Woodward Babcock, E. S. Chappell, Anson C. Goodyear, Richard E. Forest, Richard Wharton, and Kay Mohr, the latter of Philadelphia, as his ushers.

The wedding will constitute the culmination of a romance which commenced just a year ago, on the occasion of the marriage of Miss Mary Wilson to Thomas F. Lawrence at Princeton. On that occasion Harry Hollister was an usher and Miss Shepley a bridesmaid, and love at first sight was followed by the announcement of their engagement before a month had elapsed.

Real Halloween Wedding.

It is on the real Halloween—that is to say, on Wednesday, October 31—that the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Morris, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Morris, to Woolsey Rogers will take place at the home of the bride's parents, in East Thirtieth street. Miss Helena Rogers, sister of the bridegroom, will be the only attendant of the bride, and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks, rector of Calvary Church. Dr. and Mrs. Morris are now on their way home from Salt Lake City, where they have been in attendance upon their son Richard, who was stricken with typhoid fever while engaged in a shooting trip out West with his friend Arthur Choate. Woolsey Rogers will take his bride to live in Philadelphia after the marriage.

Whipple-Collens Nuptials.

Miss Annette Whipple's marriage to Arthur Morris Collens will be solemnized at the Church of the Incarnation here on November 14, and Miss Rosalie Gardner Jones, Miss Gertrude Sanford, Miss Eleanor Whipple, Miss Florence Borden, Miss Margaret Warren, Miss Edith Eganard, and Miss Ethel St. John, the latter of Hartford, Conn., will be the bridal attendants. Marcellus Hartley Dodge, Lieut. Sherburne Whipple, U. S. A., and his brother, Walter, Hugh Rankin, Alexander Craighol, Ralph Smedley, and Clarence Collens will be the ushers. After the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. Dr. William M. Grosvenor, a reception will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Whipple, the parents of the bride, at their home, on Madison avenue. The young couple will make their home in Secwick, Pa.

Miss Hackstaff's Marriage.

Albert Gallatin's marriage to Miss Margaret Hackstaff will take place on November 22 at Trinity Chapel. Miss May Hackstaff will be her sister's maid of honor, while Golet Gallatin will be the best man of the bridegroom, who is like him, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred, eric Gallatin, and a nephew of Eldridge T. Gerry.

Wedding Follows Ball.

On the day after the Halloween ball most of those who have gone to Tuxedo in order to attend it will be present at the wedding there of Miss Sybil Kane to A. Stewart Walker, in St. Mary's Church. Miss Edith and Miss Dorothy Kane will be the only attendants of their sister, and, as everybody knows one another at the Park, where the colony during the season forms to all intents and purposes one big family, it will be possible for once to dispense with ushers, a peculiarly American, and by no means picturesque, feature of weddings.

Other Weddings of Week.

Other weddings of the week are those of Miss Katherine Lyman to John Nelson Steele, Jr., at the Church of the Ascension on Tuesday; that of James D. Remsen to Miss Melinda Plimpton, daughter of the late Arthur W. Plimpton, on Saturday at the Church of the Incarnation, and that of Henry H. Hollister, Jr., to Miss Hope Shepley, at St. Stephen's Church in Providence, R. I., where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shepley, make their home.

Henry Hollister, who is a son of Mrs. H. H. Hollister, of West Forty-ninth street, and who has become a member

Doings of Clubs In the District

The Columbia Heights Art Club met at the home of Mrs. Katherine B. Seip on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Edith S. Emerson was chairman for the day. Mrs. Sarah Walhauser and Miss Mary E. Barlow were appointed parliamentary for the next business meeting.

Miss Mary C. Bennet gave a talk upon "Art and the Industries." An animated discussion followed the address.

Mrs. Sarah C. Whitall's paper upon "The Manners and Customs of the Egyptians" was well received and discussed.

A short sketch read by Mrs. Seip, "The Passing of the Home," brought forth a debate upon the "back yard" and the "flats," the memories of the "back yard" winning.

The hostess then took charge of the meeting and requested those present to repeat a verse from their favorite poet. This brought forth many beautiful thoughts.

Mrs. H. L. Wilkins entertained the club by two piano solos, Wollenhaupt's "Last Smile" and Neven's "Shepherds All and Madens Fair."

At the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Emerson, "American Architecture" and "Egypt, the Birthplace of the Sciences," will be the topics for the day.

Educational League Meeting.

A literary and musical entertainment will be given Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at Confederate Veterans' Hall, Maryland building, 1410 H street northwest, under the auspices of the Industrial Educational League of the South.

The objects are the preservation of the integrity of the Anglo-Saxon race, and its uplifting by means of co-operation with the Southern States in placing elementary education and manual training in reach of their indigent white children by assisting in establishing and building industrial schools.

All persons interested in this cause are cordially invited to attend. The admission is free.

Young Men's Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Young Men's Social Club of the First Presbyterian Church took place Tuesday evening last in the club parlors. The following were present: Dr. D. C. MacLeod, Harry Barton, Bert E. Corwin, Clarence Kee, Guy G. Butler, Charles Blair, Harry Holmes, Jefferson Blair, Harry B. Moss, William Power, R. R. Durkin, Douglas Murphy, Fred Morgan, Lewis Corson, Mr. Dunn, Mr. Lasse, John McChubb, Emory P. Enzor, O. W. Stratton, Roy Corwin, Evan White, Robert Whitney, Oscar Neubold, Jack Alexander, T. K. Moore, and William D. Rockwood.

Eight new men expressed their desire to become active members at the next meeting.

Following an address by Dr. MacLeod were several selections on a phonograph. After a game of questions and answers, refreshments were served.

Howard Alumni Officers.

At a meeting of the Howard Law School Alumni Association held on Friday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Fountain Peyton, '90, president; Louis G. Gregory, '92, first vice president; George H. De Reef, '95, second vice president; Edmund A. Fatten, '96, third vice president; Thomas Walker, '85, treasurer; Charles I. Hill, '96, recording secretary; George F. Collins, '91, financial secretary; Thomas J. Price, '96, corresponding secretary.

Curious Condensations.

Asphalt is found in dried-up petroleum beds. Cider contains from 4 to 10 per cent of alcohol.

Two thirds of the population of California are males. Last year 5,500 native Christians were added to the church in Japan.

Horsehoes are sometimes made in Australia of cowhide instead of iron. Parliamentary bluebooks were first issued in 1801, but not sold until the year 1885.

If kept going the wheels of a watch, it is estimated, travel 3,584 miles a year.

If a chameleon becomes blind it no longer changes color, but remains of a blackish hue.

Nearly 70,000 tons of cork are needed for the bottled beer and aerated waters consumed annually in Britain.

There are no paupers in the Gold Coast Colony, and there are neither lunatic asylum, reformatory, nor poorhouse.

The last South Australia vintage yielded 2,655,947 gallons, as compared with 2,945,478 gallons in the previous year.

More than 40 per cent of the deaths in Moscow are of infants under a year old. In London the percentage is 24.5.

In Germany more than 50 out of every thousand women reach the age of fifty years, while only 43 men live so long.

WEDDING GIFTS

Many brides have been made happy this month by receiving gifts from this store. We make selection easy by showing a large and varied assortment of everything giftable, and our prices you may always depend on as 20 per cent under the usual retailers.

14, 18 and 22-Karat Wedding Rings, Made of One Piece of Gold, $4 to $20

CUT GLASS

	Heavy, Deep Cut, Large Size Pitcher, Special		Cut Glass Vase, a Beautiful Gift, 10 Inches High, Special		8-inch Bowl, Pin Wheel Cut, Special
$5.00		$5.00		$3.00

STERLING SILVER

Tea Spoons, 1/2 dozen	$4.00	5-piece Tea Set, Sterling	$100.00
Dessert Spoons, 1/2 dozen	$8.50	8-inch Berry Bowl, Sterling	$10.00
Table Spoons, 1/2 dozen	$10.50	Bread Tray, Sterling	$11.00
Table Forks, 1/2 dozen	$10.50	Candle Stick, Sterling	$5.00
Dessert Forks, 1/2 dozen	$8.50	Sugar and Creamer in case, Ster.	$7.00
Soup Spoons, 1/2 dozen	$9.00	Large Salad Bowl, Sterling	$20.00
Knives, 1/2 dozen	$9.00	Water Pitcher, Sterling	$40.00

Quadruple Plate That Wears

	4-piece Tea Set	$10.00		Pretty Gilt Clock	$1.50
	Bread Tray	$1.75		3-piece Clock Set	$10.00
	Baking Dish	$4.00		French Crystal Clock	$15.00
	Water Pitcher	$4.00		French Traveling Clock	$6.00
	Candelabra	$5.00		Black Enamel Clock	$5.00
	Butter Dish	$3.00		Large Clock Set	$25.00
	Coffee Set, 4 pieces	$8.50		Mahogany Hall Clocks, beautiful chimes	$250.00
	Soup Tureen	$5.00

Bric-a-Brac

	Italian Marble Busts	$5.00 to $100.00		Genuine Bronze Busts	$2.00 to $100.00
	Hand-painted Plates	$2.00		Beautiful Imported Vases	$5.00
	Odd pieces for Curio Cabinet	$1.50		Hand-painted Porcelains, in gilt frame and shadow box	$9.00

R. HARRIS & CO.
Cor. Seventh and D Sts.

The Beautiful Bradbury Piano

For more than thirty years the Bradbury Piano has been the favorite piano in the homes of Washington, and its fame is steadily extending throughout the adjoining States. It is an instrument of infinite merit—thorough in construction, elegant in finish, and possessed of superior musical qualities. Its sweet singing quality of tone appeals to both master and amateur.

We are showing a complete stock of all the new models in the beautiful Bradbury Piano. We invite you to view the display at your early pleasure. When you buy a Bradbury Piano, you are practically dealing direct with the factory, because we are the Southern distributors for the two large factories where Bradburys are made. We sell at factory prices, and unlimited capital enables us to allow you to buy on your own terms.

F. G. SMITH PIANO CO.
BRADBURY BUILDING 1225 Pa. Ave.

This Dairy Is a Model of Cleanliness

We have spent a great deal of money in making it absolutely hygienic and we exercise eternal vigilance in keeping it up to the top notch of excellence.

You need have no fear whatsoever of you or your children contracting diseases from the milk or cream we serve.

Do You Realize the Extreme Care

We take to prevent the slightest contamination of the milk we serve? We not only sterilize everything daily—bottles, cans, machinery, even the walls and floors of the cooling and bottling rooms—but we filter every pint of milk that goes out.

Chestnut Farms Dairy,
GEO. M. OYSTER, Jr.,
1116 Connecticut Avenue N. W.